BREAK THE SILENCE ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

This week is BREAK THE SILENCE ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WEEK on the Campus. The tragedy of domestic violence affects a large part of our society and is growing every day. What can we do, in our own homes and in our own community, to stop this abuse? A Panel Discussion will be held on Thursday, October 26 at noon in Reed Hall Room 160 that will address this issue. Participating in the discussion will be Tom Myers of the Allen County Sheriff's Department; Mimi Zarzar McClish, a counselor with Dettmer Rehabilitation Services; Mary Steele, a victim advocate with Crossroads Crisis Center; and Lisa Wren, an intake supervisor with the Allen County Children Services. Their presentation will be followed by an open question and answer period. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to hear these professionals.

CLOTHESLINE PROJECT HIGHLIGHT OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WEEK

THE CLOTHESLINE PROJECT is a dramatic visual display of T-Shirts that have been individually designed and decorated by local and area victims of domestic violence and/or their families and friends. The aim of the PROJECT is to create an awareness of the enormity of this problem and to provide a therapeutic outlet for the victims' feelings and emotions. CLOTHESLINE PROJECTS have been displayed throughout the United States and at 3 international sites. The CLOTHESLINE PROJECT will be on view from Monday, October 22 through Friday, October 26 in the basement of Galvin Hall.

THE GRUP KARAVAN COMING TUESDAY

The music of Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece and The Ukraine is on the program when THE GRUP KARAVAN plays for the NOON SERIES on Tuesday, October 24 at noon in Reed Hall 160. Musicians Brian Eastman, Connie Marie, and Mary Mischenko will play and sing the songs of Eastern Europe using instruments like the dombek, prim, brach, and balalaika in their program. The Grup has been together for eight years and each of the musicians has studied with musical experts from the various countries whose music they play. Their program will also include information on the history and culture of the various countries. The performers will be happy to answer any questions you might have.

AN OPEN INVITATION TO THIEVES

Campus Security urges you not to leave valuables in plain sight in your car. A handbag on the front seat of a car is an open invitation for a thief to break-in. Always keep your purses with you -- in restrooms and classrooms. Cameras, wallets, and jewelry should be locked in glove compartments.
